

The Paladins of Naretia: Book one in the Naretia series

Olorin's adopted son, Aramus, is a creature unlike any in the kingdom of Naretia. He is feared by all, and holds a darkness inside that is said will end all life by his eighteenth birthday. Olorin must scour the kingdom for godly ingredients to make a potion for Aramus that will save them all. He is hoping his sons human side will prevail over the rising darkness within him, for long enough to outrun their enemies. But Aramus' real father, the dark God Dantet, desires his sons powers so he might, once again, walk on mortal soil. His legion of dark creatures follow Olorin and Aramus at every turn, trying to kill them. Dantet's army, however, is not the only one wanting Aramus dead. Something, or someone, changes fates hand. Neither Dantet, nor Olorin, can see the terrible future that threatens them all. Even the traitors within the wizard caste are blind to what is coming. But it is coming.
