

The Biologic Show #1

Pages: 24 Dimensions: 7 x 9.5
Colors: black & white (US/1994) Rare and out of print. Publisher Fantagraphics
After you've been repulsed and fascinated by Biologic Show #0, you'll find you crave Al Columbia's horrific machinations... and voila! As positively innard-twisting as a bad acid trip... actually, Biologic Show #1 has a lot in common with a bad trip, including visuals at once horrifying and transfixing, nightmarishly terrifying themes, cute lil critters and kiddies that, upon close inspection, reveal themselves to be not so cuddly at all... This issue, the 17-page Peloria takes Pim and Francie on another frolic. Pim's looking for Francie, Francie's looking for Pim, a friendly stranger offers Francie a ride in his big, shiny car... uh oh. Also, a 7-page romp in which Seymour Sunshine has a yummy sundae at Mr. Moxies - oops! Was that cherry from the bad cherries jar? It looks so much like the good cherries jar... sorry, Seymour! Mmmm!
