

Day One (Four Day Time Jump Book 1)

After a brutal night that took her whole family, Miranda Larson decided to become a super hero so she could catch the bad guys before they could chase her down. So she became a cop. On a day just like any other, something happened to change everything she ever knew. Sucked into a tiny pocket of time with only one way out, Randi is forced to partner up with the very criminals she had once chased. Can they find their way out before the world collapses around them? Will they get out before they are eaten by the real monsters that are hunting them? What will happen when the day ends?
