

How To Declutter Your House The Interior Designer Way

Living in a cluttered house can be the cause of many day to day organisational challenges and problems. There's a clear lack of order that can manifest in not only an untidy home but a stressful mind too. When your house has the potential to be turned into a designer's dream and a haven of peace, it requires a real interior game plan to get your property in order. This is where the expertise of London based interior designer Rosemary Ridgway provides the answer. Exquisite homes are her speciality and creating functional yet desirable interiors can be quickly achieved through the decluttering process. If you feel it's time to do battle, clear your home and your mind then this is the step by step guide for you. 5 chapters help you begin, finish and effectively master tidying, organising and decluttering your house, all with the keen eye and expert knowledge of one of London's finest interior designers. Finish your read with the bonus Chapter 6 - After Decluttering, An Interior Designer's Guide where you will be given the insider tips on decor facelifts, accessorising, colour matching, furniture and so much more!
