

Rizelmine (v. 1)

Tomonori Iwaki is a hapless middle-school student who just had his heart broken when the teacher he had a crush on gets engaged. He goes home to find that hes got a wife of his own though, arranged for him by the Japanese government. Hes not thrilled about the arrangement, to say the least, but when the government sends three agents (Rizels Papas) along to ensure that the relationship goes as planned, theres not much Tomonori can do about it. Rizels more than a little of a mystery, even if she may look like a grade-schooler. Rizel, who is very cute, and apparently made of nanomachines, does her best to win her new husbands heart, and hilarity and true love ensue. She meets fellow nanomachine projects who are rivals for Tomonoris affections, ends up in school, has an adventure with a lunchbox, and in the end she may be both the key to Tomonoris past, and to his true desires.
