

Dark Sea

In deep-space, all things are fragile; comets, quasars, moons. But, nothing more fragile than a man-made vessel and the human mind. The Fifteen-Year War is over! The Azgarians have surrendered to the Drenon Sodality bringing an end to the reign of history's most vicious butcher, Governor Azgar. As the putrid stench of war lifts from their broken planet Zhonus - Azgar and his vanguard have escaped to outer-space. A twenty-soldier cavalry is dispatched to chase the despot across galaxies and return him to answer to his crimes including the extermination of 11-million people. In charge of the posse is Commander Reeza; a one-time war hero, but more recently a political scapegoat. For her planet, the return of Azgar is justice. For herself reckoning. Following a fire-fight on an alien planet, Reeza and her diminished crew set out to return to Zhonus with their prisoner Azgar. Overcoming her revenge-hungry crew, a traitorous spy, and a maniacal prisoner to complete their mission is only the beginning for Reeza. What she finds on her planet after 66-years in space is a gut-twisting horror.
