

ELEVENTH COMMANDMENT

Faking the second coming of Jesus Christ gave humanity the Eleventh Commandment. First installment of a trilogy that traced the origin of the long-lost Hebrew text and its implications with a secret agreement between the United States and extraterrestrials. From the outset the United States entered into an unholy alliance with intellectuals from another world, knowing to keep it undisclosed would not only compromise earth resources, but demonstrated the ruthlessness of one nation to dominate all others. Thus, the aliens were circuitously presented with a unique means to evolve Homo sapiens into exotic superus, incorporating the best features of both species. Trading human beings for advanced sciences appeared a straightforward arrangement, until Evergreen, the covert USA agency, demanded more and threatened to exterminate its partners if they failed to deliver an antigravity device. Knowing that such a transfer would jeopardize their limited technological supremacy; the aliens faked the second coming of Christ and unknowingly transformed the earth into a peaceful world wherein the Eleventh Commandments was presented as universal law. Whether Evergreen would tolerate such an undertaking
